PATH TO GLASS ACT SCHOOL RESIDENCY

ABOUT THE RESIDENCIES

Canberra Glassworks, in conjunction with Capital Chemists, is offering one ACT student the opportunity to expand their artistic horizons with a two week artist residency at the Canberra Glassworks in Kingston.

The Path to Glass - ACT School Residency will be offered to one Year 11 or 12 student, currently enrolled at an ACT or greater region college or senior school. The successful applicant will receive a comprehensive introduction to one or two disciplines of glass practice of choice, which can include glass blowing, flameworking, neon, engraving/coldworking, kiln forming and casting techniques. *

The successful applicant will be supported and encouraged by staff, artists and the Canberra Glassworks Creative Fellow. An accomplished Canberra Glassworks artist/s will demonstrate glass processes and mentor the resident to ensure the safe handling of all materials and equipment.

*Subject to teaching artist availability

ELIGIBILITY

Australian citizens and permanent residents, who are currently enrolled students in Year 11 or 12 and attend an ACT or greater region college or senior school are eligible to apply.
